As such, the relatively small-scale team of software developers, mathematicians and graphic designers which make up Cayetano's staff are poised to provide some top spinning entertainment to players all over the world. That entertainment can be found in an impressive portfolio of 5-reel video slots and 3-reel classic arcade slot machines, some of which are optimised to be played on mobile and tablet devices. These games are all expertly designed to a high contemporary standard while they offer a nice and varied approach to bonus features, ensuring that spinners' senses are as stimulated as their betting balances.

From Bulgaria to Ireland

Founded in 2009, the Cayetano

Gaming operation is run from the company's headquarters in Sofia, the capital city of Bulgaria. It is here where the company's team of dedicated e-gaming professionals developed a solid catalogue of slot machine games, so impressive that the team caught the attention of some big industry names. For a start, the software supplier worked to deliver its games to the online casino SkyVegas, before the Irish gambling giants Paddy Power came sniffing to see what all the fuss was about.

It would seem that Paddy Power were more than pleased with what this game studio had to offer. That is because they didn't just secure a deal to host some of the games designed by Cayetano, but they completely bought out the company in 2011 to acquire the team as an internal software development asset. If that's not a resounding endorsement of a software company's talent, then we don't know what is.

You can play across the Cayetano Gaming range at Paddy Power, where you'll also find a fantastic collection of Relax Gaming slots, Red Tiger Gaming slots, and many more.

A múltipla segura na Betfair funciona da seguinte forma: consiste em combinar várias seleções individuais em uma única aposta, o que permite obter melhores cotas do que se cada seleção fosse apostada separadamente. Dessa forma, é possível obter um retorno maior com um risco menor.

Para criar uma múltipla segura, é necessário selecionar diferentes eventos desportivos e escolher a opção "Múltipla" ou "Combinação" no cupom de apostas. Em seguida, é preciso adicionar as seleções desejadas e inserir o valor que se deseja apostar. A casa de apostas irá então calcular o potencial lucro com base nas cotas individuais de cada seleção.
