Hubert Hurkacz: dood van Roger Federers laatste profwedstrijd en livekandidaat op Wimbledon

No matter what Hubert Hurkacz goes on to achieve in his career, for many people his name will forever be the answer to a quiz question: who beat Roger Federer in his last professional match? Three years ago, Hurkacz's 6-3, 7-6 (4), 6-0 victory over Federer in the quarter-final at Wimbledon was the end of the road for the Swiss, whose right knee, which was not properly recovered after several operations and did not allow him to stay at the top level to play.

During the match, Federer later said that his knee "was gone" and that "it was over". A year later, at an emotional farewell during the Laver Cup in London, he went into retirement.

For Hurkacz, this was his greatest achievement in his career. Playing against Federer, the eight-time champion, at Centre Court at Wimbledon, was something that he had dreamed of as a child. It was an intimidating experience, but he stepped up to the plate. "Definitely I was stressed beforehand," Hurkacz says from Monaco, where he lives.

"I was very confident in my game at that moment, I knew that I was playing good tennis on grass at Wimbledon and that's why I was able to beat Daniil [Medvedev] in five sets. I felt like I was in a good position and I was trying to do the best I could and to compete."

"It was stressful, but I was also very motivated. As a child, I always looked up to Roger, he was my idol. He won so many Wimbledon titles and it was a dream to play against him, that was something that I always wanted to do."

Three years later, the 6-foot 5-inch (1.96 m) Polish number 7 on the world ranking and the number 3 seed at Wimbledon, is now a live contender to reach the final or even go further. One of the few active players with titles on clay, grass and indoor and outdoor hardcourt, he has one of the best serves in the game and his style fits perfectly on grass, even though he has grown up playing on clay indoors, without heating.

Roger Federer says goodbye to his lost match in the quarter-final of Wimbledon against Hubert Hurkacz.

"Grass is definitely my favorite surface," says the 27-year-old. "In Poland we don't have grass. We probably have a few special courts, but I would not compare them to the courts at Wimbledon. Since I played junior Wimbledon, I have always looked up to the tournament. I always want to play on grass, I want to make beautiful shots. I really enjoy that atmosphere, the feeling of playing on grass."

Unmoved by the fact that he comes from the same country as the world number 1, Iga Swiatek. With five Grand Slam titles, her name is Swiatek, a national hero and the number 3 seed. All eyes are on her. As Hurkacz helps Swiatek get the attention and allows her to do her thing.

"I have no reason to be here, Iga wins everything," says he. "It's also exciting to see her play outdoors. She is a very nice person, what she has done is really fantastic. I am very lucky that we will play together in the Olympic Games, that is really special."

"Hubi", zoals hij op Tour wordt genoemd, heeft een zachte aard, maar zijn serve is giftig. Volgens Tennis Viz, dat het ATP-toernooi in de gaten houdt, staat hij nummer 2 over de afgelopen 52

weken in het dienen van "effectiviteit", 3 dat aces, service-winnaars, onbereikbare diensten en een aanvallende positie na de service omvat.

De stijl van Hubert Hurkacz past perfect bij het spelen op gras.

Hij bereikte de finale 3 het afgelopen weekend in Halle, alleen verloor hij van de nummer 1 van de wereld, Jannik Sinner, in twee tie-breaks, 3 na 13 asservingen in de finale en 77 in het toernooi.

Als hij dit soort cijfers noteert op Wimbledon dit 3 jaar, is hij waarschijnlijk moeilijk te stoppen en misschien zelfs een nieuwe quizvraag te creëren.

"Ik ben ambitieus. Ik wil toernooien 3 winnen," zegt Hurkacz, die de kwartfinales bereikte op het Australian Open dit jaar. "Ik ben er trots op om op 3 elke ondergrond te hebben gewonnen. Met een beetje geluk kan ik nog goede dingen doen in de toekomst, zodat ik 3 herinnerd zal worden voor meer dan het verslaan van Roger," zegt hij, met een glimlach. "Maar het was echt bijzonder 3 om op Centre Court met Roger te spelen, alleen al het gevoel van de sfeer. Het was gekriebelend hard. Ik 3 heb nog nooit iets zo'n dingen ervaren en ik ben blij dat ik het heb gekund."
