Went on the Benfica Stadium Tour which was excellent as you get to see so many behind the scenes areas such as the changing room, pitchside and press room. The Tour Guide was excellent and there were many photo opportunities. The Tour cost less than 20 Euros and included a scarf and fridge magnet, so great value.

Sebastian Vettel, tetracampeão da Fórmula 1, podevoltar a alta velocidade melhoresCondições arcrace relations driver since his retirement in 2024.Vettel revealed that he has had conversations with Toto Wolff, Mercedes team boss, and other team principals, suggesting a potential comeback to the sport.

The German driver noted that Mercedes has a vacancy for the 2025 season, following Lewis Hamilton's move to Ferrari, and Red Bull may not renew Sergio Perez's contract, opening up a spot in the team where Vettel won four world championships.

"Potentially, I'm (in the market), because I don't have a car, but the question is, am I looking for one? I retired to not come back, but I also said, 'Never say never.' I had conversations with him (Wolff), not exactly about a seat., maintained contact. I have some projects and ideas with F1?" Vettel told Sky Sports News.

Regarding his possible return, Vettel said, "In terms of performance, Mercedes has a good history, they've been struggling a bit in recent years, but they're still fighting for second and third in the constructor's championship. It's not like they're running on nobody's land."

If Vettel were to return to F1, he would be 37 years old next season. Other veterans in the sport are older than him, such as Lewis Hamilton, 39, and Fernando Alonso, 42, whom he competed against during his career.

Vettel has been away from F1 for two seasons since his last title, and his move to Ferrari came as a surprise to him. However, he welcomes the challenge of Hamilton's transfer to the Italian team. "I was surprised, like most of us, but excitement. Clearly he's looking for a new challenge and it'll be different to see him in red, in a different color," he said. Charles Leclerc, who will be Hamilton's teammate at Ferrari, has already received praise from Vettel.

The F1 season continues this week with the Japanese Grand Prix. Qualifying will take place at 3 am (Brasília time) on Saturday, and the race will take place at 2 am on Sunday. Max Verstappen, of Red Bull, leads the championship with 51 points, followed by Charles Leclerc, of Ferrari, with 47. Behind them are Sergio Perez (Red Bull, with 46 points), Carlos Sainz (Ferrari, with 40), and Oscar Piastri (McLaren, with 28).
